These Things We Do...That Others May Live

News You Can Really Use

In a recent unscientific survey it was discovered that a majority of wing personnel neither read the wing newsletter nor knew of its existence. To more effectively communicate with you, the 129th Public Affairs office has now adapted and is online where most of you are now. Everything pertaining to the 129th Rescue Wing can be found at www.129rgw.ang.af.mil, www.facebook.com/129RQW, www.twitter.com/129RQW and www.youtube.com/129thRescueWing.

Portrait of a Professional: April 2011

Portrait of a Professional is a monthly profile of an outstanding Staff Sergeant or below. Senior Airman Jason Pak, with the 129th Security Forces Squadron, is featured as this month's Portrait of a Professional.

Airmen Lift a TF-104G Aircraft

Airmen from the 129th Rescue Wing conducted a full-scale airbag lift exercise using a TF-104G static display to simulate a downed aircraft at Moffett Federal Airfield, Calif. More information about the TF-104G is available at <http://www.nationalmuseum.af.mil/factsheets/factsheet.asp?id=2313>.

Family Readiness Corner: Child & Youth Volunteer Program

A very important part of the Family Assistance Network is the California National Guard Child and Youth Program. The Child and Youth Program is here to meet the needs of military children throughout the state. The CYP hosts many events yearly to include camps and leadership training. Staff is located throughout the state, if you would like additional information contact Ms. Jerica Lovett, the Child and Youth Program Coordinator, at 916-854-3713 or jerica.e.lovett.ctr@us.army.mil.
