Air Force Memorial

129th Honor Roll to be Included

The Board of Directors has approved a proposal by Blaine Hall that will honor the deceased members of the 129th RQW in the Air Force Memorial. The Air Force Memorial will honor the millions of patriotic men and women who have distinguished themselves in the United States Air Force and its predecessors, such as the Army Air Corps. The memorial will also salute the vast technological achievements that have made American airpower the most formidable on earth.

The Association will make a donation in the name of each individual. The initial donation will include those members who were killed in action, as well as other individuals selected by the appointed committee.

Additional names will be submitted each year until all those listed on the 129th Honor Roll have been recognized.

Committee members include Ken Moore, Jay Craddock, Don Delucchi, and Ed Boddington. The list of names submitted this year will be published in the next issue of the Ol Timers Noozze.

Old Timers Luncheon & Board Election

The membership has elected LTC Jesse Craddock President and CCMS Ken Moore Vice President. COL John Ruppel was re-elected as Secretary-Treasurer.

The Prez Sez

The President's Column

Lt Col Jesse Craddock (Ret.)

Welcome to you all as the 129th Alumni and Heritage Association begins its fourth year as a California Tax Exempt Corporation. I want to thank all of you for electing me to the position of President of the Association for the next two years. Following in the footsteps of Ken Moore, the Immediate Past President and newly elected Vice President, will be a challenge. Ken has guided the 129th AHA through its early growth, and we will continue to depend on his leadership in the years to come. And welcome to a second term as Secretary-Treasurer, John Ruppel.

The Old Timers Luncheon was an enjoyable event attended by a record breaking 138 guests. The now traditional corned beef and cabbage buffet was delicious, and the socializing was great. MG Bob Barrow, the guest speaker, presented an overview of the California Air Guard's role in national and state security since September 11.

The annual raffle for the prints of the collage of 129th aircraft raised $287 for the scholarship fund. And thanks to your continued support, the 129th AHA is proud to have presented five scholarships of $300 this year, and hopes to expand the program in the years to come. Special thanks to our newsletter editor, Lynda Fawcett, for all of her volunteer hours. Her employer, California Federal Bank, recognized her volunteer efforts with a check for $500 to the scholarship fund.

The 129th AHA has sponsored a spring golf tournament for the past few years. However, due to the ill health of Tommy Brooks, our golf-meister, and scheduled deployment of the unit, we are unable to coordinate a tournament. But, do not panic - we have an alternative for all you hackers. The Tennessee Ernie Ford Chapter of the Air Force Association is sponsoring a Charity Golf Tournament on Friday, June 7. Details are included on pages 4 and 5.

The annual Family Day picnic will be drill weekend, Sunday, July 7. A flyer will be sent at a later date to fill you in all the details - time, place, tickets, etc. Mark your calendar now!

The Air Show Network, the organization behind the NASA Air Show, is planning a weekend at Moffett FAF July 27 & 28. Sponsoring concession booths was a great fund-raising opportunity last year, and we are planning on participating again this year. With your support, perhaps we can manage to staff 2 or 3 more booths than the 5 we had last year (in conjunction with the Family Support Group), increasing our potential for income. Please contact Ken Moore, John Ruppel, or Cindy Kepple to put your name on the NASA Air Show list. We need lots of volunteers to make this a profitable weekend.

We are at war and, while we don't see the full-blown support of the general public that we did during WWII, the war on terrorism is definitely affecting the reserve units, including the 129th RQW. Their deployments have left a shortage of personnel that the AHA can help alleviate in many areas, such as phone monitors, security at various buildings, and other small work-related tasks. Even as retirees, we are often busy people, but a few hours a week as a volunteer, will not only help the 129th RQW, but remind you that freedom is not free - or forever. We have the knowledge and experience, so let's do what we can to back up our active duty men and women.

Mark your calendars for Family Day and the NASA Air show! We look forward to seeing you there!

2002 NGAUS Conference

Long Beach, California

Col William E. Ignatow

After 30 years, California will once again host the 124th Annual Conference of the National Guard Association of the United States (NGAUS). Named Gold Rush 2002, this year's conference will be held 7 – 9 September at the Long Beach Convention Center. Major General Paul Monroe, The Adjutant General, has assembled a statewide organization to oversee all of the conference operations and manage the 500 Army and Air National Guardsmen it will take to put on an event of this magnitude. There is still a need for volunteers to assist in many of the conference activities, from fund raising to actually assisting during the conference itself. If anyone is interested in what volunteer positions are available, LTC Jim Berdan at OTAG in Sacramento is the volunteer coordinator. He can be reached at (916) 854-3077. If you are not the volunteer type, but would like to attend the conference, contact the National Guard Association of California at (916) 386-9600 for more information, or visit the Gold Rush 2002 website at www.GoldRush2002.org for more details.
