New AFRC Resort Opening

The Armed Forces Recreation Center (AFRC) Europe is now accepting reservations for the new Edelweiss Lodge and Resort in Garmisch, Germany – scheduled to open September 15, 2004.

The recreation and leisure area has a 330-room hotel including a conference center, three restaurants, entertainment game rooms, indoor pool, and wellness club. The resort also includes a 9-hole alpine golf course, Hausberg Sport Lodge and Vacation Village Campground. The Hausberg Lodge has undergone a massive renovation to accommodate the increased number of guests visiting Garmisch.

The new $60 million resort is the result of the consolidation of AFRC Europe hotel facilities in Garmisch and Chiemsee.

To make your reservations or to find out more about the Edelweiss Lodge and Resort, visit the AFRC Europe website at:

Board Election

SMSgt Don Delucchi (Ret.),
Election Committee Chairman

March 2004

The 2004 Annual Meeting of the 129th Alumni and Heritage Association was held in conjunction with the Annual Old Timers Luncheon on March 24, 2004, at the Alameda Elks Lodge, 2255 Santa Clara Avenue, Alameda.

The membership has re-elected LTC Jesse Craddock, President; CCMS Ken Moore, Vice President; and COL John Ruppel, Secretary-Treasurer, as board officers. Congratulations....and keep up the great work!

The luncheon was attended by 110 guests and the now traditional raffle raised $150 for the scholarship fund. Way to go, gang!

Thanks to the generous support of the 129th AHA membership, the Association awarded five scholarships to members of the unit. Additionally, the Bay Area Chapter of The Military Officers' Association of America (formerly The Retired Officers' Association), now headed by Jay Craddock, will be supplementing each of the $300 129th AHA scholarships with an additional $100 scholarship from MOAA.

The Scholarship recipients for 2004 are:

- ◆ MSgt Armando Martinez - MXS
- ◆ TSgt Richard Lower - MXG
- ◆ SrA Raul Ayala - SVF
- ◆ SrA Gloria Fabre - SVF
- ◆ SrA Luke Fitzgerald

The Prez Sez

The President's Column

LTC Jesse Craddock (Ret.)

The March Old-timers lunch brought together 110 members and guests for an extended social period and lunch. Five $400 scholarship awards were presented to Rescue Wing members. The Military Officers Association generous $500 donation enhanced the total award. The annual raffle generated $150 in Scholarship Program funds.

The Association has reached the 300 member mark. Members are the Association's life blood. Please encourage your eligible friends to join us. This will insure a vibrant, active organization.

Regrettably, I must announce Lt Col Malcolm Campbell's passing May 8, 2004. The Board sent a sympathy card to Malcolm's family on the Association membership's behalf.

The Spring Golf Tournament organized by Jim Rommelfanger was held on May 7th. Forty-four folks teed off Friday morning to challenge the Moffett Field course and finished the day with a barbeque. The tournament raised approximately $700 for the scholarship program. We anticipate the fall tournament will be scheduled in October.

The Board is considering establishing a Members Only Web page area which would feature a bulletin board. If this is something you would find valuable please let us know.

The Rescue Wing's annual Family Day is scheduled for the August UTA weekend. This is a great opportunity to renew old acquaintances and meet the new Wing members. Details will be posted on the Association web page.

Take a moment to peruse the Mercantile Store. The Association aircraft collage is available by mail for $12. You can go to the web page to order items. The order form is automated and provides a total price which includes shipping. www.129AHA.org

If you happen to be at the Moffett NASA Air Show, May 29-30, stop by and say hello. A number of us will be working in the beverage booths to raise scholarship program funds.

Have a great summer!

Jay

Lt Col Malcolm B. Campbell

11 October 1916 – 8 May 2004

Mac was orphaned as a young child, and he and his older brother were raised at St. Vincent's School for Boys in San Rafael.

Mac joined the Marines in 1937 and guarded railroad lines in China. In 1942, he joined the Army Air Corps and attended aviation cadet training. Mac became a lead navigator and highly qualified B-29 navigator. When recalled during the Korean War, he was assigned to a B-29 Squadron patrolling the West Coast looking for warships and submarines. He came to the 129th Troop Carrier Group in 1955 with C-46 aircraft, and retired in 1974.

Mac was very professional, an excellent navigator, and very well liked and admired. He led a very active retirement at the Lake of the Pines.

He is survived by Joan, his wife of 25 years, his son Tom, his daughter Joan, daughter-in-law Susan, and several grandchildren.

Funeral, Military Burial and Memorial were held in Auburn, California.
